CASE OF E. L. SCHARF

Former Resident of Alexandria Once More Brought Into the Limelight In Washington.

It will be remembered that several years ago E. L. Scharf, a former resident of Alexandria, was denounced upon the floor of the House of Representatives by Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky, who alleged that Scharf made a proposition to him to deliver the Catholic vote for a consideration. He is again in an unenviable position in Washington.

Nearly a quarter of a century ago Scharf came here, from Loudoun county. He professed to be a teacher, and after residing in this city a short time he announced himself a candidate for the position of Clerk to the School Board. On that occasion the late Hubert Snowden, who had been clerk for several years, was re-elected.

One high in the counsels of the Baltimore Diocese of the Catholic Church at Washington, but who for canonical reasons refrains from permitting the use of his name yesterday gave out the following statement in Washington:

"Who is E. L. Scharf, Ph. D., who styles himself editor of the Catholic News Bulletin?

Scharf is without authority in the Catholic Church. His so-called Catholic News Bulletin is not recognized in the Catholic Church.

"Scharf was never a professor in the Catholic University.

"Scharf was ignominously expelled from the Knights of Columbus for misrepresentation, fraud and conduct unbecoming a Christian.

"If you wish to verify these facts, consult Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Shahan, rector of the Catholic University; Monsignor Russell, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Washington, or James K. Flaherty, Supreme Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus, Box 96, New Haven, Conn.

"If you think Scharf has any influence in the Catholic Church, consult Senators O'Gorman, Ransdell, Ashurst and Walsh and Representatives Fitzgerald and Ben Johnson.

"If Scharf pretends to control Catholic votes, treat him as you would any other false manipulator."

The office of Scharf, is at 2603 Mozart Place, Washington, which is also his residence. This location brings to the fore an interesting bit of history as recorded in the Congressional Record.

In the Congressional Record, Vol. 46, Part 5, third session of the Sixty-first Congress, beginning on Page 4192, is the following:

"The next business was the bill (S.8774) to change the name of Messmore Place to Mozart Place.

"The clerk read the bill, as follows:

"Be it enacted, etc., That the street now known and designated as Messmore Place and extending from Euclid street to Columbia road shall hereafter be designated Mozart Place and the Surveyor of the District of Columbia is hereby directed to enter such change on the record of his office.

"The Speaker—Is there objection?

"Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky — Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object I wish to make a statement that I feel every man in this House is entitled to hear. Finally, I shall not interpose any objection to the passage of this bill; but I desire to say that it has been lobbied for by a man whom every member of this House ought to know something about. That man is named E. L. Scharf. When I came to Congress four years ago I got a very mysterious note from this man asking me to call at his place and see him, at No. 900 Fourteenth St. I went, and when I got there he asked me if I would be a candidate for re-election to Congress. I told him that I would. He then told me that he had looked up my district and found that there were 4,000 Catholic votes therein. He then made a proposition to me that for a pecuniary consideration he would deliver those 4,000 Catholic votes to me. In that connection he also said that he was a Knight of Columbus, and through that organization he would surely and certainly deliver those votes to me.

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that I am proud of being both a Catholic and a Knight of Columbus, and I emphatically deny that this man can do anything of the kind. I furthermore know that there are several members on this floor to whom he has made the same proposition, and I have been informed that he has obtained money from members of this House upon the pretext that he could deliver to them the Catholic vote in their districts and the votes of the Knights of Columbus in the United States for a pecuniary consideration.

"The order of Knights of Columbus is not a political organization, but instead strictly fraternal, and it is a reflection upon both the Catholic Church as well as upon the order of Knights of Columbus that this man can go unchallenged and unexposed in his nefarious scheme. Therefore, I say what I do relative to him for the purpose of defending the Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus from such characters who for a few dollars bring discredit upon that church and upon that order.

"Every Catholic and every Knight of Columbus will, I know, appreciate an exposure of this Catholic 'for revenue only.' I have not availed myself of the constitutional privilege of the House to express my opinion of this man, but I have done so to his face, and now repeat it for the protection of the House and the public.

"I wish to warn this House against a lobbyist, a man who is lobbying for the passage of this bill that is now up, and who lobbies for various other bills that come along, and then in the meantime offers to deliver to any candidate who will pay him a monetary consideration the Catholic vote and the vote of the order of the Knights of Columbus in the United States, which I know he cannot do. In justice to the membership of this House I wish to make this statement. I now withdraw any objection, Mr. Speaker, to the bill.

British casualties reported in October in all war areas are: Officers 4,331; men, 102,702.

SALVATION ARMY WORK

Report Submitted Showing What is Being Done in the City of Alexandria by the Local Branch.

Any organization that is working to make the lives of men and women better, brighter and happier, is worthy of commendation and the consideration and good will of the community as well. For many years it was believed that all efforts for the good of the people along religious lines could only be made effective by and through the churches. That idea does not prevail today.

What has brought about the change?

The open-air meetings held on the corner of a city street, at which you will hear the earnest exhortation and gospel songs of the Salvation Army officers, backed up by the good work they are doing among a class that the churches cannot, or, at least, do not reach, that is one of the reasons that has brought about the change. There was a time when so-called christian people were heard to speak slightingly of the Salvation Army workers. If it were done today the christianity of the man or woman guilty of it would be questioned. By whom, you ask? By the man on the street—the worldly man—the chap who knows of the good work which the Salvation Army is doing and who is capable of taking the measure of the so-called church member and weighing him up correctly.

Today the work of the Salvation Army is endorsed by the best people in the land. President Wilson said of it:

"I sincerely wish Godspeed to any organization which, like The Salvation Army, has as its main object the betterment of humanity and the making of bad citizens into good ones."

Ex-President Taft gave the Army this endorsement:

"I am thoroughly in sympathy with your work. I believe you reach people who are not reached in any other way. I believe that your experience in dealing with the slums of great cities and your practical methods of charity are of the widest usefulness, and I am glad to testify to my high appreciation and admiration of those who are in charge of The Salvation Army, and the great good they have done."

Ex-President Roosevelt said:

"At last it has won its way to recognition, and there are few serious thinkers nowadays who do not recognize in The Salvation Army an invaluable social asset, a force for good which works effectively in those dark regions where, save for this force, only evil is powerful."

The local branch of the Army, which is in charge of Captain Herbert Young, is but a small part of the great organization which has spread to nearly all parts of the civilized world, and the balance sheet which is presented herewith is published in order that Alexandria's people may know what is being done in this city and how its funds are being used:

Situated in the heart of the richest coal district in the lower Appalachians, Bristol is facing a shortage of coal. There is not more than 400 tons of coal in the local yards, dealers said today, and this supply will last only three or four days.

Oyster season opens at the Rammel Cafe, North Royal Street.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

Mrs. William J. Morton, Miss Helen Norris Cummings and Mrs. John Thornton Ashton will return today from Richmond where they attended the meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary held in St. James church, Richmond, the past week.

Friendship Council, 28, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, at their meeting last night received one application for membership. Arrangements were made to receive and entertain the State Councilor, Mrs. Mary E. Prender, who will pay the Council an official visit Friday evening, November 7. The committee on the Hallowe'en masked ball reported it a success in every particular.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 the choir of St. Paul's Church will hold its first "Evening with the Choir" for the season. The program will embrace Mark's "Magnificat" and "Nunc Dimmittis" in "D"; "A song in the night" by Woodman, with incidental solos for soprano and bass; duet for tenor and bass, "Watchman What of the Night," by Sargeant. "How long wilt Thou forget me?" by Pflenger, with incidental solo for alto; Soprano solo "Come unto me". by Coenen, and "The day is past and over" by Marks, with incidental solos for soprano and tenor. The solos will be sustained by the regular quartet of the choir, Mrs. Harrie White, soprano; Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, alto; Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden tenor; and Mr. Wilmer Joyce Waller, bass. Mr. Harold Milette, violinist, of Washington, will play the offertory. All are invited.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of Hattie H. Gates vs. R. H. Cox, administrator of the estate of the late Roberta Hill et al., the cause was referred to H. N. Garner, special commissioner, for a report.

Master George Anderton Burke, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Thompson Burke, of Rosemont, was given a party Thursday afternoon by his grandmother, Mrs. George Prior Anderton, at her home on Braddock Heights, in celebration of his first birthday. One of the principal amusements of the day was an organ grinder with his monkey, whose services Mrs. Anderton secured for the afternoon. Among the children present were: Master Gerald Jones Davis, of Arizona, Miss Anne Carter Greene and Master Julian Greene, of Washington, Master Waller Smith, of Edmondton, Alberta, Canada, Miss Elizabeth Edge and Master Valentine Edge, of East Downington, Pa., Master David French, Miss Dorothy Morton, Miss Caroline Morton, Miss Margaret French, Miss Susan Smoot Thomson, Miss Elizabeth Boothe, Miss Deane Lindsey, Miss Mary Earle Hoxton, Master Carter Beverley, Miss Grace Powell, Master Llewellyn Powell, Jr., Master Ashton Powell, Miss Nellie Sommers, Master Thomas Sommers, Master Robert Rust, Jr., Master David Rust, Miss Ruth Bryant, Master Herbert Bryant, Master Armistead Boothe, Master Gardner Lloyd Boothe, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Nicholson, Master Charles Nicholson, Jr., Miss Frances Greene, Master Rector Smoot Green, Master Charles Keith Carlin, Jr., Miss Barbara Price, Miss Elizabeth Baldwin, Master Laurence Washington, Master Jacquelin Washington, Master Orlando Kirk, Jr., Master Francis Mayer, Miss Caroline Rust, Miss Elizabeth Rust, Master William Rust, Miss Blanche Horner, Miss Margaret Slaymaker, Master Bedford Uhler, Jr., Master Jack Scott, Miss Katherine Leadbeater, Master Milton Leadbeater, Miss Courtenay Cochran, Master Robert Cochran and Miss Viola Barrett.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

Julia E. Parker and husband have sold to Emanuel J. Webster et al. a house and lot on the south side of Queen street, between Columbus and Alfred.

Mrs. D. Milton French and Master David French are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Brewster, at their home in Elizabeth, N. J.

Miss Alice Marshall Payne, of New Orleans, has been the guest this past week of Miss Mary Daingerfield, at her home "Malvern," on Seminary Hill.

Mrs. Charles Minnegerode Maigne, and little daughters, Misses Polly and Frances Maigne, of Washington, are the guests of Mrs. Maigne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Davidson, at their home in south Royal St.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Smith, and Master Howard Worth Smith, jr., are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, at their home at Broad Run.

Miss A. S. Payne, of Baltimore, was the guest for several days this week of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, at their home in Prince street.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will observe the annual week of prayer beginning Monday, November 6, at 3 p. m. All are cordially invited.

The November term of the Circuit Court for the city, Judge J. B. T. Thornton, will convene Monday.

In the Corporation Court today a final decree was entered in the case of Hunter Bronaugh vs. Blanche L. Bronaugh, by which the plaintiff was awarded a divorce from the defendant upon the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was represented by Samuel G. Brent.

Bishop Gibson is expected to visit Christ Church Tuesday evening, November 14 to comfirm a class.

A FINE PRODUCTION

Indian Opera "Powhatan" Presented In Highly Creditable Manner by High School Students Last Night.

The opera "Powhatan," presented by members of Alexandria High School at the opera house last night was a brilliant success from all stand points — artistic, financially, and last but not least, for puctuality, for the curtain rolled up promptly and there were no waits.

The stage pictures presented by the talented pupils were unusually brilliant and picturesque; the bright costumes elaborately beaded, the savage "make-up" of the warriors and the grotesque sailors combined with the dainty shades of colors in the dancing girls' costumes presented a picture, under the soft colors of the electric lights that was highly pleasing. The singing of the superb chorus was inspiring and the soloists acquitted themselves with credit. The audience, which completely filled the auditorium, gave enthusiastic approval and the applause stimulated the actors to do their best.

Prof. S. G. Blanton as Powhatan, the King of Virginia, was capital in this role; his well trained and beautifully modulated voice showing to fine advantage, especially in the opening song, "King of the Forest Am I." As Pocahontas, Miss Kathryn Henderson was charming, her brilliant voice, intelligent action and handsome stage appearance won her instant favor. She responded to an encore in her opening song.

As Laughing Star, the belle of the tribe, Miss Marion Grenaway captured the hearts of the audience at once, as she did the hearts of her two dusky admirers, Medicine Man and Pathfinder, impersonated in a comical manner by Lewis Fones and Willian Meeks. Miss Greenaway has a remarkably sweet voice and altogether she was a delight to eye and ear. She received a handsome gift of flowers, following her song in the third act.

Miss Janie Saunders in an Indian Lullaby sang sweetly and she received a recall. Misses Louise Schwarzmann and Ruth LeHew were enthusiastically encored in the "Big Chief Battle Axe," song, which was well deserved. Misses Louise Abbott and Grace WeWlls sang and danced the Canadian song, "Winnie from Winnipeg," with grace and effect and the pretty Indian dance by Misses Gladys Rodgers and Lorine Rishell was exquisitely performed with a daintiness and chic that was electrifying and won them an instant recall.

An entirely different atmosphere was apparent on the entrance of those two jolly rovers, Captain John Smith, and Captain Rolfe. Jaunty and light, full of confidence and resourcefullness, their appearance produced that sense of superiority over the wild tribe of Indians which inevitably pushed the aborigines to the rear. Prof. C. E. Bandy as Captain Smith was immense—he filled the bill completely—satisfied one's mental conception of the original, and all through his important role easily held the attention of the audience. His topical song "It Points That Way," had some excellent hits and was well received.

Prof. H. C. Nolley, as Captain Rolfe made a fine lover for Pocahontas and their conversation and duet in the third act made a big hit. Mr. Nolley, entered into the role with zest and his rendition of the role of the handsome young Englishman was all that could be desired.

These two splendid young teachers in the high school, Bandy and Nolley, added greatly to the strength of the performance, their lines and duet at their first entrance being heartily enjoyed.

But talk about comedians—well, Leslie Devers has them all beat to a frazzle. As the comical sailor, Tim, he simply captured the whole outfit, audience and actors alike. Leslie was a delight in this role. He has the necessary nerve to get his funny lines over the footlights and his diminutive appearance, but level-headed, meritorious performance won quick favor. He was ably supported by Fred Schwab, as Larry, and a fine looking squad of the younger high school boys. The chorus of Indian maidens, dancers and warriors was satisfactory in every way, and the war dance of the latter in the first act was sufficiently blood-curdling.

Much of the success of the performance was due to the excellent support the singers received from the work of Miss Anna Haslett at the piano. Miss Haslett received as a testimonial of regard, a very handsome boquet of flowers, presented by the talent on the stage.

Mr. Baker, who coached the singers, expressed himself as being highly pleased with the work of all. The matinee is in progress this afternoon and there will be a performance tonight at 8 o'clock which closes the series. With the experience of last night and that of the matinee, the talent will feel quite at home and should give a star performance tonight. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Athletics and the Literary Society of the high school.

From the Chief, Powhatan to the young fellows who worked the stage (Edmonds and Wells), from the pianist to the prima donna, the opera was entirely the product of the high school and the rehearsals were held entirely out of school hours and in the short space of ten days, which speaks volumes for their intelligence capability and application.

ANOTHER RAY OF HOPE

Statement is Made That Government Armor Plant May Be Placed In Old Dominion.

Ever since the movement was inaugurated for constructing a government armor plant people in Alexandria have indulged the belief that Alexandria will be selected as the proper site for such a factory. The Gazette was optimistic from the first and made the original suggestion that this city present its advantages to the officials at once. This was done as early as possible, and many of our representative citizens who put the ball in motion immediately have never ceased in their labors.

It was announced a few weeks ago that out of the many places bidding for the plant only nine would be seriously considered by the government officials. The nine were not named, hence it was not known whether or not Alexandria was among them. We now believe our city is being considered by the Secretary of the Navy and the naval board as among the most suitable places for this colossal plant.

According to a special dispatch from Washington to the Boston Transcript, Virginia will be awarded the government armor plate plant. Alexandria, Richmond, Petersburg, Roanoke, Portsmouth, Norfolk and Newport News are bidders for the plant, and we all prefer to believe that the first named Old Dominion city will be the one favored when the decision is made.

Ninety per cent of the cities which have filed applications for the armor plant will be eliminated before a special board from the Navy Department goes out to inspect cities.

It was stated authoritatively at the Naval Department recently that the possible sites will be reduced to about nine before the board makes its trip of inspection. The selection, it was said, will not be made within a month.

TURKEY THANKSGIVING

Members of Alexandria Light Infantry Will Spend Day Far From Home.

Preparations are being made to take care of the Virginia militia on the border for the winter, all indications at present being that the men will be kept there for several months at least. The boys are said to be writing home asking that Christmas boxes be prepared for them, so that they may enjoy some of the delicacies that are always on the menu of the dinner of that day.

It is understood that turkeys have been requisitioned to be served to the Virginia troops on Thanksgiving day, about eleven ounces being allowed each man. This is provided for under the rules of the army, and will prove a welcome dish to the Virginia boys who cannot enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner with their families.

HOW TO MARK YOUR BALLOT.

When you go to the polls to vote next Tuesday, do not make a mistake in marking your ballot:

Scratch all candidates for President and Vice President except Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall.

Do not scratch any of the electors.

If you scratch the President and Vice President of any political party the electors will be counted as they would be counted if the names of the electors had been scratched.

Do not scratch Claude A. Swanson.

Scratch all other candidates for Congress but do not scratch the name of C. C. Carlin.

No name shall be considered scratched unless the pen or pencil mark extends through three-fourths of said name.

FIRST FOUR DRY DAYS.

Reporters for the Gazette generally rely upon some incident in the Police Court, either serious, pathetic or ridiculous, upon which to base an item. When the usual early morning call was made upon that tribunal of justice Sergeant John T. Roberts, who is prone to use Latin, raised his hand and uttered but one word and that of three letters—"nil." This was disappointing, but there was a clear blotter — nothing doing during the night was the answer to the next question. No fires had occurred, no accidents, no deaths, no disorders.

As the Gazette recently suggested, this is a good showing in a city embracing probably twenty thousand souls and an area twice as large as that of two years ago.

The abolition of the saloon is urged as the reason for these tranquil conditions. This may be so in a measure, but conditions which prevailed this morning have been in evidence many times during the year.

But to return to the saloon. Many people from the surrounding country visit Alexandria on Saturdays. Some would not consider it a bona fide visit without testing some of the cheer heretofore offered by the city. There was, of course, nothing doing in that line at the usual meeting points this morning. One could obtain most any seasonable edible, but the usual accompaniments to a meal had been striken from the menu cards.

Abnormal quiet prevailed in and around places where the lame, the blind and the halt of both colors have heretofore gathered. The fountain at the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets sent forth its streams inviting to man and beast. In the language of the ritual of the Sons of Temperance, an Alexandria institution of by-gone years, "that which onlookers beheld was sparkling water, a beverage prepared by God Himself to nourish and invigorate His creatures." Some partook, probably secretly muttering that if they possessed the power of the illustrious Guest at the marriage in Cana of Galilee they would convert it into something else.

WILL VOTE NEGROES

A statement issued yesterday afternoon by the Department of Justice says:

"Information received by the Department of Justice shows that within the last three months approximately 60,000 negroes have been transported from certain Southern States to Northern and Western States, mainly to Middle Western States, particularly Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Investigation has developed the fact that a number of these negroes have registered in violation of the laws of the States to which they have gone and have expressed the intention of voting in these States.

The above will bring to mind scenes in [illegible] years ago, or during "reconstruction" days. At that time [illegible] the District of Columbia were allowed to vote, and the [illegible] who dominated the capital city voted anything in the shape of a man regardless of color or previous conditions. It was impossible to induce a negro man to work in Alexandria while an election was in progress in Washington, and this class spent the day in that city, their transportation expenses being paid and pocket change furnished also. It was immaterial from what point of the compass they came; all that was necessary was for them to give their names when they were placed in vehicles and whisked to the polls.

Aged negroes unable to read who had about as much knowledge of political issues in Washington as they had of the Schleswigg-Holstein question then causing apprehension in Europe, availed themselves of this holiday to visit Washington and vote tickets as unintellible to them as the hieroglyphics upon the tombs of Egypt.

The republicans, it seems, are repeating tricks prevalent half a century ago. But "anything to beat Wilson" is their slogan.

DEATH OF A LITTLE PRINCE.

The death of Little Nell in Dickens's "Old Curiosity Shop," is pathetic, and will never be forgotten by those who have read the sad scenes in connection with the passing away of the innocent heroine. There is another picture almost as touching—the death of the dauphin at a time when angry clouds were gathering around Louis the Sixteenth and his Queen Marie Antoinette. The royal couple were passing through a terrible ordeal and one which caused both to lose their heads at the hands of cruel subjects, most of whom were women. While the thunder was sounding louder and louder the anxious queen was summoned to watch the passing away of her son, the heir apparent to the French throne. Already over-burdened by anxiety at the approach of the devastating storm, she was suddenly called to the bedside of the dauphin who was dying. When death closed the scene the king, who had entered later, silently and with tears falling upon the head of his queen, closed with his own hands the staring eyes of his child.

The King and Queen of Roumania are now passing through a similar ordeal. A little Roumanian prince has passed away, a victim of typhoid fever, at a time when fierce enemies are overrunning the country.

Death enters alike the palace and the cottage gate. The unfortunate Marie Antoinette at times became impatient when she realized she was denied so much of life which was accorded her poorest subjects. She ordered that a certain sum of money be given every woman in France who had acquired a child on the day her little one died. "While the day is a dark one for me, let other mothers rejoice," said she.

The death of J. R. C. Brown, of Roanoke, reported to have been killed when the British steamer Marina was torpedoed, was officially confirmed yesterday by Secretary of State Lansing, in a telegram to Mrs. N. G. Thompson, a sister of the dead man. Brown joined the Marina at Newport News. He was 31 years old.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Good Reasons Why President Wilson Should be Re-Elected.

Editor Gazette:

The writer was born a Democrat, and cast his first vote for Grover Cleveland, but was converted to the cause of the prohibition of the licensed liquor traffic, and has, without a single exception, voted the National and state Prohibition ticket ever since his conversion, but would were he living in one of the states, instead of the District of Columbia, vote this year for the re-election for President Wilson for the following reasons:—

1. If Wilson is not elected, Hughes will be, and I prefer the former to the latter, not that Hughes is not a good man, but he is in bad company—the trusts, moneyed interests—and would, no doubt, cater to the favored few, as did Roosevelt, Taft and others.

2. Wilson is the people's President, and works for the good of the majority, regardless of the big interests, as in the case of averting a strike, and established the eight hour day for the railroad employees—thus setting an example for employers the wide world over to follow.

3. Wilson has made good.

4. God needs Wilson to aid Him in carrying out His plans.

5. Wilson is progressive, having influenced Congress to enact as law nearly every plank indorsed by the National and State Prohibition party in 1913, and quite a number indorsed by the National Prohibition party from its very birth to the present.

6. Wilson is a modern, as well as a model President.

7. Wilson is fifty years ahead of the "stand-pat" Republicans.

8. The laws enacted during Wilson's administration will result in more lasting good for the average American, than all the laws enacted by the Republican party since the days of the immortal Lincoln.

9. Wilson has kept us out of war; and among the brilliant stars in the political horizon, from Washington's day till the present, Woodrow Wilson's name will stand out in bold relief as the "Peace President," and generations yet unborn will rise up and call him blessed, as Christianity and civilization rise in proportion.

10. It is best to let well enough alone.

11. If it is not good policy to trade horses, while crossing the stream, it certainly is bad policy to trade Presidents, while the "Old Ship of State" is being tempest tossed, as at present.

12. Wilson, having safely guided the Ship of State among the breakers, over mines and reefs, under aeroplanes and against contrary winds, is still needed at the helm as pilot, til the storm subsides.

13. During Wilson's administration the licensed liquor saloons and wholesale liquor houses have been reduced in the District of Columbia from 1,100 to practically 300; more "Dry" territory has been gained, than during any one term of any one Republican President since the Civil War.

14. Should Wilson and the present Congress be re-elected, the entire District of Columbia will be dry, ere the expiration of Wilson's second term.

Saxon Cars Give Satisfaction

SAXON MOTOR CARS have proven their worth in town and country use. They have proven their superiority in many ways in public contests. They are unequalled in apperance and economy in their respective classes.

The 1917 Model, just out, embodies all the qualifications of cars selling from two to five hundred dollars higher in price. If a customer becomes acquainted with the Saxon car he seldom considers buying any other make.

We want good live representatives in your territory and have a special liberal offer to some good responsible citizen in your town. This is a bonafide position with no strings attached.

WE ARE HOLDING AN AUTOMOBILE DISPLAY OF NEW MODEL SAXON CARS AND SMITH FROM-A-TRUCK FROM NOVEMBER 4TH TO NOVEMBER 12TH. HAWAIIAN MUSIC WILL BE FURNISHED EVERY EVENING BY THE HAWAIIN TRIO.

Take time by the forelock and grasp this opportunity we have to offer. The SAXON CAR or the SMITH-FORM-A-TRUCK.

ARRANGE TO SPEND ELECTION NIGHT IN WASHINGTON TO GET THE RETURNS, AND HAVE YOUR FAMILY MAKE THEIR HEADQUARTERS AT OUR SHOWROOM. OPEN ALL NIGHT.

We also wish to announce that we are incorporating our business at $1000,000, to allow for the expansion we have enjoyed continuously during the two short years of our business life.

This offer is worth your time and consideration.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The revolutionary situation has grown so acute in Greece that soldiers have been placed at the disposal of the German embassy. An armed guard now surrounds the building. A dispatch from London says civil war has broken out in Greece. Heavy fighting is in progress between Venizelist revolutionary forces and loyalist troops in Thessaly. The rebel army that occupied Katorina is reported to be marching on Larissa, the great railroad center in Thessaly.

A raid was made by German naval small craft on the shipping route between the mouth of the Thames and Holland on Wednesday night, the admiralty announces. Several steamers were stopped and searched, and two of them were brought into a German port. The raiders were fruitlessly shelled by four British cruisers while they were returning.

Villa bandits again are cutting the ears from captive Carranza soldiers and then sending them back to their commands as a warning to other Carranza soldiers, said a Mexican civilian refugee who reached El Paso yesterday from Jiminez, Chihuahua. He asserted that he had seen sixteen Carranza soldiers at Jiminez with their ears severed from their heads.

Mystery surrounds the murder of a young man whose body, with bullet holes in both arms, breast, stomach and forehead, was found on the banks of the Rock River, near Janesville, Wis, by hunters. The man, a stranger, was well dressed, and evidently a foreigner. In his pocket was found a roll of $200, but no papers. Police followed a trail to a shack a few hundred feet away, and there found evidences of a desperate struggle.

Infantry fighting continues in Galicia and in Volhynia, with slight successes in both regions for the Russians, according to the official statement issued by the Russian war office yesterday. The Russians have reoccupied part of their trenches on the west bank of the Stokhod in Volhynia and east of the village of Lipnicadolna, in Galicia, the Russians have pushed back the Austro-Germans in some places.

The Rumanians have driven the Austro-Germans across the frontier of Transylvania in the region of Tabel Butzi, according to an official statement issued yesterday by Roumanian war office officials. In the Buster Valley they have captured Mount Siriul and Taurumio, while in the Valley of the Jiul they have driven the invaders farther back, capturing four guns.

The Austrians have lost 850,000 men since the begining of the year, according to authoritative information received in Geneva. Of this number, 450,000 are prisoners in the hands of the Russians or Italians.

Chairman Vance C. McCormick, of the Democratic National Committee, says: "Wilson will be re-elected President by an overwhelming plurality in the electoral college. He will get over 300 of the 531 electoral votes. Though Wilson can win without New York, he will carry that State. Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan are safe in the Wilson column.

There have been no heavy actions on the Somme front. The French have made slight gains at Sailly and the British have taken a German trench east of Guendecourt. Fort Vaux in the Verdun region, has been occupied by the French, following its evacuation by the Germans.

Following up his new offensive on the Carso plateau, south of Gorizia, Gen. Cadorna Thursday night and yesterday made fresh advances. The Italians are reported tonight to have penetrated to within about twelve miles of Trieste, the object of their smashing blows.

LEGAL NOTICES

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.

Elsie Mueller, vs. Theodore Mueller. In Chancery.

An affidavit having been made in the above entitled suit that the defendant, Theodore Mueller, was not a resident of the State of Virginia, and upon application of the complainant, Elsie Mueller, in writing, stating the object of the suit and the grounds thereof, and specifically stating the last known address of the defendant, the said Clerk of the Circuit Court for the said City of Alexandria, in vacation, doth enter the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain a divorce a mensa et thoro for the complainant from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment on the part of the defendant, and that upon the lapse of the statutory period to merge the same into a divorce a vinculo matrimonii; for the custody of their infant son, and for general relief.

It is ordered that the defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order of publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of the said order of publication be published for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the said City of Alexandria and that a copy hereof be posted at the front door of the Court House of the said City of Alexandria on or before the next succeeding rule day before this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be forthwith mailed by the Clerk of the said Court, after this order is entered, to the said defendant at Detroit, Michigan, his last known address.

Amazingly Comfortable

They like its power—it's the world's most powerful low priced car.

Everybody concedes its beauty.

It wins on economy.

But its roomy seats, deep upholstery and easy riding cantilever springs—

These things make it so amazingly comfortable that people can hardly believe their senses.

You wouldn't think that a small, light, economical, low priced car could be so comfortable.

But come in and let us prove it to you.
